LEBANON, KENTUCKY MAN INDICTED FOR DEALING CRACK COCAINE

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that a federal Grand Jury in Louisville returned a Four-Count Indictment charging JEREMY SEABROOKS, age 31, of Lebanon, Kentucky, in Marion County, with selling crack cocaine.

The Indictment alleges that on December 15, 2006, Seabrooks distributed more than 50 grams of crack cocaine; that on December 13, 2006, Seabrooks sold 5 grams or more of crack cocaine; and that on December 8, 2006, and on January 17, 2007, Seabrooks sold crack cocaine in an unspecified quantity.

If convicted, the maximum potential penalties is life imprisonment, a $14,000,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of at least five years and up to life.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney John E. Kuhn, Jr., and it was investigated by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, and the Kentucky State Police.

Seabrooks is scheduled to appear for arraignment before the United States Magistrate Judge on February 20, 2007, at 9:30 a.m., in Louisville, Kentucky.
